Got it. I'll try to settle down; being too reactive. AH's are starting to piss me off.

LAPD told me to call the company and do this. Their website does not say to use our lot, it says ralphs on Lincoln. We have contacted the company. We are seeing their jeeps on Lara's prop too.

Vending - any kind of vending - on the street is illegal. Have you seen an ad that he has placed? (Documentation of his activity.) I'd approach this criminally. LAPD can cite, I believe.

There is a car rental co/car loaning company that has been doing business out of our parking lot and maybe yours. Mostly we see jeeps and high end cars. The main guy is pictured. We have not towed one yet, but are working on it. We tried communicating with the company (on Lincoln) to no avail.
